Disciplinary Report

Dated: June 14, 2023
Competitor(s): Ryan Dolbear, Zach Sobotka, Kyle Devendorf
Regarding: June 2, June 9, June 10 Sportsman Feature events

Competitor: Ryan Dolbear

Violation/Penalty: Following the June 10 Fulton Speedway Sportsman feature, Mr. Dolbear's car was found to have less than the required number of bolts mounting a piece of ballast weight in place. He was fined $100 and instructed to correct the problem.

Teams are reminded that:

All weight(s) must have a minimum of two (2) ½"-inch diameter grade 5 bolts and/or studs passing completely through the weight.

Competitor: Zach Sobotka

Violation/Penalty: The MSD ignition box in Mr. Sobotka's showed irregularities during tech following the June 2 Brewerton Speedway Sportsman feature after reading the appropriate RPM limit at the scales. Mr. Sobotka was fined purse earned for the night, the part was surrendered and he was instructed to correct the problem.

Competitor: Kyle Devendorf

Violation/Penalty: Mr. Devendorf was fined purse earned from the June 9 Brewerton Sportsman feature for unsportsmanlike conduct. Under caution, Mr. Devendorf stopped twice on the track delaying the show then physically entered the scorer's tower after the race. Both of which are prohibited activities by track and DIRTcar rules.

Drivers are reminded that an official's call is final and non-negotiable. Unsportsmanlike behavior is not tolerated.
